THE ULTIMATE UNIVERSAL ANTIOXIDANT — The NA-R+ALA version of Alpha Lipoic Acid (ALA) is the most bioavailable form available¹. R+ALA serves as a potent antioxidant, helping the body mitigate oxidative stress and damage caused by free radicals. Additionally, it promotes healthy glucose metabolism, aiding in the conversion of sugar into energy.

Most commercially available ALA products are cheaper and consist almost entirely of the less effective S(-) isomer. These inferior products are not as efficacious. If a label does not specifically indicate R+ALA, it likely isn't present.

Allmax R+ALA contains 150mg of the pure, biologically active R(+) isomer, the mitochondrial form found naturally in the human body.

Switch to the purest, most bioavailable ALA: ALLMAX R(+)ALA.
